Bank own Financial Adviser in Norway selects AdvisorCube technology.

Finans Rådgivning, own by Melhus Sparebank in Trondheim, Norway has selected AdvisorCube technology provided by FinanceCube for their future focus on Financial Advisory. Their 5 advisors will use AdvisorCube for portfolio management, CRM and MiFID compliant "Customer Profile" database.

Finans Rådgivning have spent a lot of time looking for new technology and selected AdvisorCube after a long project.

"We are very glad to sign with this new customer" Lasse Meholm managing director of FinanceCube said. "They are a group of highly skilled advisors, and demand the best in the market for their clients".

As a part of the deal also Melhus Sparabank has an option to start using the technology during 2009.
